Dear Dr. Manjunath raware

the forward mail is my experience at Jayadeva three days ago. I shared it with some senior colleagues in government. being shared with you with gratitude and commending your efforts.

Your kind of Chiefs also inspire many government officials to do their best in their respective areas.

Thank you doctor.

Best Regards

Dear Colleagues

This is about my happy experience with Rs. 75/- in Bangalore. However, I wish none of you would have an occasion for such experiences.

On 5th January, I received a wonderful & efficient health care service from a government hospital in the middle of the night, by two committed professionals. I recalled similar health care service I had received in a hospital in Fairfax, Virginia about 9 years ago. Of course, then I paid through a medical insurance. For that insurance I was paying about US$ 250 (for 4 adults) as monthly premium. The insurance covered world class treatment which also included air-lifting in case of emergency, anywhere in the world. Just that I had
